

Press release n.2

Tridente 16' al 32° Trofeo Accademia Navale 2015

Finally, after two days with yoo windy weather, we had the Sunday, May 3 with light but steady wind from SSE and calm sea that enabled the smooth running of 3 trials. The impeccable organization of the Sailing Section of the Naval Academy, which for the first time hosts the Tridente 16 'at the TAN, has allowed the 30 boats entered to show up exactly on time at the starting line.

The race course very technical, also characterized by strong currents, has put a strain on the capacity of concentration and seamanship of the crews but did not change the top positions of the ranking: first the crew Mancini-Brunazzo-Salamone from Francesco Morosini Naval School, second place to the crew Mainero-Bracci-Bracci, and third place to the twins Stillone, also called "the terribles", with Valerio Borghesi. Fourth place to the British crew led by Willmot (first team of foreign Naval Academies teams) and fifth the crew ITA 1 of Accademia Navale with helmsman Palmieri.

Crews at the end of races moved to the village Tuttovela for the awards rite, where the Commander Rear Admiral Maurizio Ertreo with his officers and the Chairman of the "Tridente Class" rewarded crews. After the official ceremony and the collection of signatures of the participants on the board of TAN 2015, the latest photos and greetings with goodbye to the 33th edition of the event.

In addition to the Foreign Naval Academies participated athletes from CV Antignano, Congrega Velisti Cesenatico, CN Riccione, CN Senigallia, CV Torrette Fano. We thank the officers, non-commissioned officers, students and all the military and civilian personnel of the Academy who have done everything possible for the success of the event, as always adding a touch of personal generosity and sympathy.

Upcoming dates for the Tridente class: the National Race in Cesenatico on 29 and 30 August and the Italian Championship in Torrette di Fano on 12 and 13 September!